

Claudia was born and raised in Mexico and has lived in the United States for over thirty years. She believes Continuing Education is key to achieving a high level of professional expertise and encourages her colleagues to share their knowledge with other members of our profession. By practicing what she preaches, she earned her Federal Court Certification in 2005, passing both exams on her first try. She is also certified in the states of California, Indiana and Ohio and a Certified Trainer by SSTI/NAJIT, and CCC's The Language of Justice, as well as one of the firsts Instructors for the Indiana Court Certification Program.

Her interpreting career has allowed her to work all over the United States, in Mexico and Nicaragua. She has done extensive Forensic Transcription Translation work and is a very active member of various Social Media professional groups, where she enjoys participating, learning from her colleagues and sharing her points of view.

She is a member of the Bench and Bar Education Committee and is seeking a seat on the NAJIT's Board of Directors looking forward to contributing to the growth of our profession and our Association by making a difference from within.
