PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING THREE QUESTIONS.

IMPORTANT: HANDWRITTEN ESSAYS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

Essays must be typed in electronic form on a separate sheet.

Please spell out all acronyms the first time they are used.

- 1) Describe the value of your involvement in professional associations.

- 2) What was the biggest influence in your decision to pursue translation or interpretation as a career?

- 3) Explain how your attendance and participation at the NAJIT Annual Conference will benefit your student peers and language communities.

Letter of Recommendation:

In addition to emailing an electronic application, applicants must send at least one letter of recommendation from a current or recent (within the past 3 years) instructor to NAJIT headquarters. While a letter from a translation/interpretation instructor is required, any instructor familiar with your work may also write about your general qualities, interests, and achievements.

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. All application materials must be received at NAJIT Headquarters by March 1, 2024.

Applications that do not include all required components will not be considered. Applications must be written in English and be in electronic form. Recipients will be notified by March 29, 2024. All applicants will receive an email announcement that includes the list of the recipients selected for this award. The final list will be posted on the NAJIT website.
