

Jaramillo, Julli, is the newest Publishing Coordinator and Editor-in-Chief for NAJIT. She holds a master's degree in Translation from NYU and has extensive experience in quality assurance, content development, and strategic growth. Passionate about NAJIT's mission to uphold ethical standards for judiciary translators and interpreters, she is dedicated to driving the organization's growth while ensuring its publications meet high-quality standards and adapt to evolving industry demands. In her free time, Julli enjoys baking and creating art.*

Feel free to reach out to her to chat about the NAJIT Observer or Proteus—she is excited to collaborate!