

Sarah King
Graphic Designer

Sarah is the Graphic Designer at NAJIT, responsible for creating visually compelling designs that communicate the organization's message and enhance its brand identity.

From event materials to digital content, Sarah designs eye-catching graphics that help NAJIT connect with its members and the broader judiciary interpreting community.

With a strong background in design and a keen eye for detail, Sarah ensures that all visual materials align with NAJIT's mission and standards, making information both accessible and engaging. Her creative expertise is essential in supporting NAJIT's marketing efforts and delivering a cohesive visual experience.

